

21st JUDICIAL DISTRICT

ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER—ACTING CHIEF JUDGE

Whenever I am absent from this judicial district, the most senior judicial official, starting with the District Court bench, is appointed to the position of acting chief judge.

Therefore, Judge Bottger is appointed acting chief judge during any absence of mine from the district. If he is unavailable, Judge Bailey is appointed; if she is unavailable, Judge Flynn is appointed; if he is unavailable, Judge Smith is appointed; if he is not available, Judge Deister is appointed; if he is not available, Magistrate Westbrook is appointed; and if no other judicial officer is present in this judicial district, then Magistrate Cyphers is appointed as acting chief judge.

Done this 11th day of January, 2005.

BY THE COURT:

Nicholas R. Massaro
District Court Judge
