

County Court, Mesa County

Administrative Order - Small Claims and County Court Civil Appeals

In an effort to make the appeals process easier for pro se parties to understand this district no longer requires litigants filing either a small claims appeal or a county court appeal to file a designation of record. In preparing the record for appeal, the appeals clerk will always prepare and send to the district court the entire record.

5/23/03

By the Court:

Arthur Smith
Presiding County Court Judge