

21st Judicial District, Colorado

Administrative Order - Rule 26.2

In an effort to reduce paper filed with the court, save litigation expense, and protect the privacy of the parties, the attorneys shall not file copies of the Rule 26.2 disclosure attachments (i.e. tax returns, pay stubs, etc.) with the court. Attorneys shall continue to provide these disclosure attachments to the opposing side. The attorneys, however, should file a document indicating what documents were provided to the opposing side pursuant to Rule 26.2. Attorney shall continue to file financial affidavits with the court.
