

The 21st Judicial District Self Help Center offers assistance to self-represented parties in non-criminal cases. The center provides a number of services including: interactive tutorials on various civil matters, brochures on a variety of court related topics, information on upcoming clinics, access to the Colorado Judicial website and more.

Our center is open Monday – Friday 8am to 4:30pm, excluding holidays. It is located in the Court Clerk's office on the first floor of the Mesa County Justice Center.

For questions regarding services available in the Self Help Center you can reach us via email at: 21SelfHelp@judicial.state.co.us or you may call 970-257-8764. Please allow up to 2 business days for a reply.
